

The Virginia Amateur Quarter Horse Association
Novice Amateur Rookie Award for 2009

Sponsored by the Virginia Amateur Quarter Horse Association

The VAQHA is proud to announce its presentation of a Novice Amateur Rookie Award that will be presented to the top VQHA point earning Novice Amateur Rookie for 2009. Listed below are the requirements that must be met in order to be eligible. Points accumulate from join date of VAQHA membership.

Requirements:

- Must be a member in good standing with AQHA, VQHA, and VAQHA.
- Must meet all the requirements of AQHA in order to hold an AQHA Novice Amateur Card for the current year.
- Must never have earned any AQHA (not VQHA) points in any Novice Amateur classes prior to 2009. NOTE: Having shown in a Novice Amateur class will not eliminate you. Only earning AQHA Novice Amateur Points will eliminate you from competing for this award.
- Must never have earned any AQHA points in Amateur, Open, or Youth Performance classes. NOTE: Only performance points will cause you to lose your Novice Amateur status, thus Halter points (either Open or Amateur) do not count because Novice Amateur classes are all performance classes.
- Obtain at least 12 VQHA points in each of two Novice Amateur classes during 2009.
